Best buy in Missouri: Heidi MacQueen is a German import who is living the life of a cowgirl at Meadow View Ranch near Leasburg. She runs a "horse motel," renting a guesthouse and a barn apartment to traveling horse owners. But you don't need a horse to stay there. The cozy guesthouse rents for $60 a night, $8 for each extra guest, and has a front-porch view of pasture and woods. You can help Heidi feed the animals, or fish for trout at nearby Bennett Spring State Park.
